Board of Directors

Article 15. The Company shall have a board of directors, consisting of not less than five (5) persons, to conduct its operations, provided that no less than one-half (1/2) of the total number of directors shall reside in the Kingdom of Thailand.

Article 16. The directors shall be elected by the shareholders' meeting in accordance with the following rules and procedures:

- (1) Each shareholder shall have one (1) vote for one (1) share.
- (2) Each shareholder may exercise all the votes he or she has under (1) above to elect one or several persons to be a director or directors, but cannot divide his/her votes in an unequal number to any particular person.
- (3) Persons who are elected to be directors will be those who receive the highest number of votes, in descending order, according to the number of directors who are to be elected. In the event of a tie for the last position to be elected and this exceeds the said number of directors, the chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

Article 17. At each annual general meeting, one-third (1/3) of the total number of the directors at that time, or if the number is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to one-third (1/3), must retire from office.

A retiring director is eligible for re-election.

The directors retiring from office in the first and second years after the registration of the Company shall be selected by means of drawing lots. In subsequent years, the director who has held office the longest shall retire.

Article 18. Apart from retirement upon expiration of the term of office, a director shall cease to hold office if he or she,

- (1) dies;
- (2) resigns;
- (3) lacks the requisite qualifications or possesses prohibited characteristics under the law governing public limited companies and the law governing securities and exchange;
- (4) is removed by a resolution of the shareholders' meeting as specified in Article 20

(5) is removed by a court order.

Article 19. Any director who wishes to resign from the Company shall submit a resignation letter to the Company. The resignation shall be effective from the time the resignation letter reaches the Company.

A director who resigns according to the first paragraph may inform the Registrar of his or her resignation.

Article 20 A shareholders' meeting may pass a resolution removing any director from office prior to the expiration of the term of office, by a vote of not less than three-quarters (3/4) of the number of shareholders attending the meeting and eligible to vote, and the shares held by the voting shareholders shall, in aggregate, be not less than one-half of the number of shares held by the shareholders attending the meeting and eligible to vote.

Article 21. In the case of a vacancy on the board of directors for any reason other than the expiration of the director's term of office, the board of directors shall elect a person who has the qualifications and who possesses no prohibited characteristics under the law governing public limited companies and the law governing securities and exchange, as a substitute director at the next meeting of the board of directors, unless the remaining term of the office of the vacating director is less than two (2) months, provided that the substitute director shall hold office only for the remaining term of office of the director whom he or she replaces.

The resolution of the board of directors under the first paragraph shall require a vote of not less than three-quarters (3/4) of the number of directors remaining.

Article 22 The directors shall be entitled to receive remuneration from the Company in the form of a financial reward, meeting allowance, gratuity, bonus or benefit of any other nature in accordance with a resolution of the shareholders' meeting by a vote of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the number of shareholders attending the meeting. The remuneration may be designated in fixed amounts or as a specific guideline, for any specific time of payment, or for continuous application until any future amendment by a resolution of the shareholders' meeting. In addition, the directors shall be entitled to receive allowances and fringe benefits in accordance with the Company's regulations.

The provision in the first paragraph shall not prejudice the rights of the Company's staff or employees who are appointed to be directors in respect of their entitlement to receive remuneration and benefits as staff or employees of the Company.

Meeting of Shareholders

Article 31 The board of directors shall hold an annual general meeting of shareholders within four (4) months after the end of the Company's accounting year.

General meetings of shareholders other than as specified in the first paragraph shall be called extraordinary general meetings. The board of directors may call extraordinary general meetings whenever they deem it appropriate.

Any shareholder or shareholders holding shares in aggregate of not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the total number of shares sold, may at any time subscribe their names and clearly state the purpose in a letter requesting the board of directors to call an extraordinary general meeting. In this case, the board of directors shall call the shareholders' meeting within forty-five (45) days from the date of receipt of such letter from the shareholders.

In case the board of directors fails to arrange for a shareholders' meeting within forty-five (45) days from the date of receipt of such letter from the shareholders, the shareholder or shareholders who holds shares in the aggregate number as previously prescribed may call a general meeting of shareholders within forty-five (45) days following the lapse of forty-five (45) days period requiring the board of directors to convene a shareholders' meeting. In such event, it is deemed that a shareholders' meeting convened by the board of directors and the Company shall be responsible for any necessary and reasonable expense incurred for holding and facilitating such meeting.

Article 32 In calling a shareholders' meeting, the board of directors shall prepare a notice of the meeting specifying the place, date, time, agenda items, and the matters to be proposed to the meeting together with appropriate details stating clearly whether they will be for acknowledgment, for approval, or for consideration, as the case may be, as well as the opinions of the board of directors on the said matters, and shall send the same to the shareholders and the Registrar for their information not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting. Publication of the notice of the meeting shall also be made in a newspaper for a period of not less than three (3) consecutive days, at least three (3) days prior to the meeting date.

A meeting of shareholders shall be held at the province in which the Company's head office is situated or any other location in Thailand as may be fixed by of the board of directors.

Article 33 At a shareholders' meeting, the quorum of the meeting shall consist of shareholders or proxies (if any) who represent not less than twenty-five (25) persons or not less than one-half of the total number of shareholders, holding in aggregate not less than one-third (1/3) of the total number of shares sold.

In the case that, at any shareholders' meeting, one (1) hour has passed since the time for which the meeting is scheduled but the number of shareholders attending the meeting has not met the requirements as stated in the first paragraph, if the meeting was requested by the shareholders such meeting shall be cancelled. If such meeting was not called at the request of the shareholders, the meeting shall be re-convened and the notice of such meeting shall be sent to shareholders not less than seven (7) days prior to the date of the meeting. The re-convened meeting shall not require a quorum.

Article 34 The Chairman of the board of directors shall act as chairman of the shareholders' meeting. If the Chairman of the board of directors is not present at the meeting or cannot perform his duty, the Vice-Chairman of the board of directors shall act as chairman of the meeting. If there is no Vice-Chairman of the board of directors or if he/she is not present at the meeting or cannot perform his/her duty, the shareholders' meeting shall elect a shareholder present at the meeting to be the chairman of the meeting.

Article 35 In casting votes at a shareholders' meeting, each share shall have one vote. If any shareholder has special interest in any matter to be considered by such shareholders' meeting, such shareholder shall not be entitled to vote on such matter. Except for the vote for the appointment of Directors, resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall consist of the following votes:

- (1) In general, a resolution shall be passed by a majority vote of shareholders present at the meeting and casting their votes. In the event of a tied vote, the chairman of the meeting shall have an additional casting vote.
- (2) In the following circumstances, a resolution shall be passed by a vote of not less than three-quarters (3/4) of the total votes of the shareholders present at the meeting and entitled to vote:
 - (2.1) To sell or transfer the whole or important parts of the business of the Company to other persons;
 - (2.2) To acquire or accept the transfer of a business of other private companies or public companies by the Company;
 - (2.3) To make, amend, or terminate agreements concerning the lease of all or an important part of the business of the Company, to assign another person to manage the business of the Company, or to merge the business with other persons for the purposes of sharing profits and losses;
